

TOWN PLANNING ORDINANCE 1921

Herbert Samuel

GOVERNMENT OF PALESTINE.

TOWN PLANNING ORDINANCE 1921—ORDER.

PALESTINE.

ORDER.

(Gazetted April 15th. 1924).

In accordance with the provisions of Article 2 of the Town Planning Ordinance 1921, on the application of the Central Town Planning Commission,

I hereby declare Jericho a town planning area.

The boundaries of the Town Planning Area of Jericho have been delimited as follows by the Central Town Planning Commission on the recommendation of the provisional local Town Planning Commission:

(a) From a cairn erected about 500 metres from Ain al Sultan on the East edge of the Eastern road to Wadi Nawaimeh in a straight line to the cairn erected about 1000 metres to the East of the Jericho Mosque on the South edge of the Allenby Bridge Road.

(b) From the cairn on the Allenby Bridge Road in a straight line to a cairn erected on the Khaur Abu Dhahy due South of the Jericho Mosque.

(c) From the cairn on the Khaur Abu Dhahy in a straight line to the intersection of the unfinished Army Road and the Old Jericho Road.

(d) From this intersection along the Army Road until the end of the soling.

(e) From the end of the soling in a straight line to the large ruined building near the Kuruntul Monastery.

(f) From the ruined building in a straight line to the cairn on the Nawaimeh Road.

The boundaries are indicated in detail on the plan signed by the members of the provisional local Town Planning Commission which is exhibited at the office of the Jericho Local Council, and which may be inspected at any time by any person interested.

April 7th. 1924.

HERBERT SAMUEL

High Commissioner.
